Locking the Door Book

[redacted] was upset
and decided to
lock the front door.

Mama and [redacted] were
locked out.

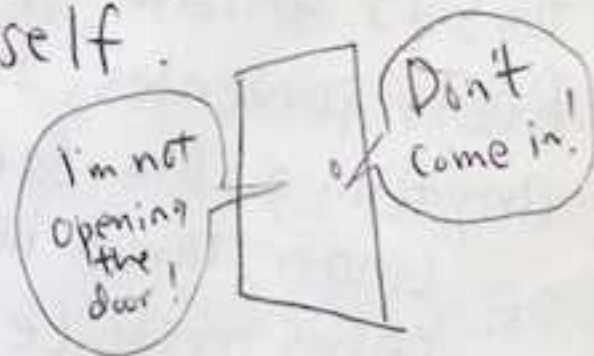

He was showing how mad
he was.

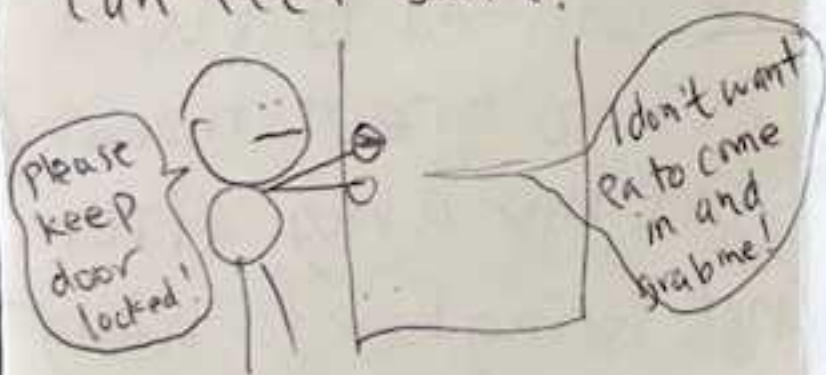

When he opened the
door to let [redacted] in,
Mama came in.

He ran to the
bathroom and locked
himself in.

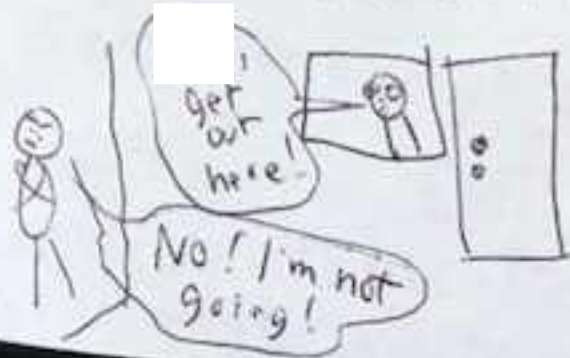

He was protecting
himself.

One time , [redacted] did not want to go to [redacted]. He knew Pa was upset and was going to come get him. He asked Mama to keep the door locked so he can feel safe.

When Pa came , Mama kept the door locked and talked to him through the window. Pa was very angry and demanded to come out. [redacted] hid and refused.

Pa gave up and left. [redacted] was glad the lock held up, and blocked Pa from forcing him to go. He felt nervous and worried about his decision to lock Pa out. He was afraid Pa would be mad at him when he saw him.

Pa told [redacted] he can't unlock the front door when Mama comes to pick him up. He did not like how that made him feel, because he wanted to rush out to greet mama and give her a hug after not seeing her for a long time.

He feels sad, and also trapped inside the house. He feels bad that he needs to follow Pa's rules that make him feel bad. He thinks this is unfair, but feels powerless to do anything. Ma said she understands he feels he has no choice, and that she is sorry he is in the middle.

(5) [redacted] will wake up
with no more
cavities. Ma
will be
there.

The Worry Book

① [redacted] is going to
the dentist
tomorrow.

He is worried,
He does not want
to go,

② His heart was
beating funny
and it hurt.

③ his stomach
hurt also.
His head was
full of thoughts
that made him
nervous and
afraid.

④ Ma said it's normal to feel worried about things you don't know about. It's also normal to not want to feel pain.

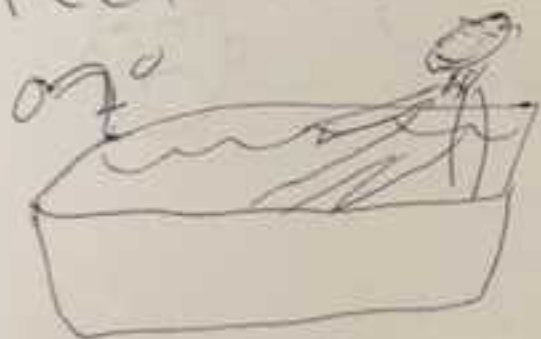

⑤ Ma gave [redacted] a hug and said she understands.

She said she will help him through this.

⑥ She talked about how she used to get nervous too.

She helped him take a bath to feel relaxed.

⑦ She said it's good to talk about things that make him nervous, so he talked about his feelings when he went to bed.

[redacted] wanted to
go play at the
high school, so
he asked ma.

Ma thought about
the time, and
said "not today"

[redacted] heard 'no'
and got very
upset.

His whole
body felt
mad! From
head to toe,
inside and out

He said angry words
to ma to let
her know how mad
he was.

He made faces
at her.

He was so mad,
he ran home and
locked ma out
of the house.
